THE APPROPRIATION BILL.

This document, the consideration of which may, after all, be considered the main business of the Session of the Legislature, was laid before the House on Monday by the Minister of Finance, and, having been read a first time by its title, lays over under the rules for a second reading. According to a resolution adopted on Monday, this bill becomes the special order of the day for Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays of each week, until finally disposed of.

The total amount appropriated by this Bill, foots up the very respectable sum of three millions, eighty-two thousand, four hundred and seventeen dollars and—never mind the odd cents; being eight hundred and eighty-six thousand, four hundred and eleven dollars more than the footing of the Appropriation Bill in 1880.

The following are new items: Salary for a District Judge at Waianae, $800 for the two years; Printing Reports Supreme Court, vol. 4, $2,500; Chinese interpreter and translator, $6,000; Coronation of His Majesty the King, $10,000; Reception of foreign official guests and incidentals, $20,000; Expenses incident to Legation at Washington; $5,000; Drill shed, $5,000; Arms and accoutrements, $20,000; Purchase of books for Government library, $3,000; Guard of Oahu Prison, $7,000; Civil Engineer, $8,000; Incidentals Governors' offices, $500; Books and Stationery Registration of Conveyances, $300; Water supply, Kalawao, $10,000; Custom House and stores, Kahuiki and Mahukona, $30,000; Repairs and furniture Government House, $3,000; New Government offices, $35,000; Fire proof building for Supreme Court and other records, $15,000; Completing and furnishing new palace, $30,000; Palace stables, $15,000; Care of forests, nurseries, improvement of land and public places, $12,000; Salary entry clerk, Custom House, $2,000; Salary collector, Mahukona, $4,000; Customs guard, Mahukona, $2,000; Guard at Hilo, $2,000; Salaries of District Attorneys at Hawaii, Maui and Kauai, $4,000 each; Criminal expenses, $20,000; Armed force contingent fund, to be expended by advice of the King and Cabinet Council, $60,000.

The brigantine Ninito brought up 90 cords of fire-wood from Tahiti, and the following passengers—Tawae, Mrs. Tawae (Mary English) and child, Etua, Taron, W. Davis.

The bark D. C. Murray sails for San Francisco to-day, with a fine freight and passenger list.

LEGISLATIVE.

TUESDAY, May 30.—Petitions presented and referred:

From Makawao, that all laborers on plantations be released from work on Saturdays.

From Punu, Hawaii, that the fathers of large families be exempt from personal taxes.

From S. Kona, that parents sending their children to English schools be exempt from the school tax.

From Wailuku, that $2,000 be appropriated for the Waikapu bridge.

From Hanalei, that 10,000,000 be borrowed, but without pledging the faith of Government.

From Koolauloa, that the school tax be abolished.

From Pelekunu, Molokai, for $3,000 for a bridge, $2,000 for roads, $400 for mail carriage, and $600 for a school house.

From Honolulu, for $3,000 for the Manoa bridge.

From Kohala, for $8,000 for their roads and bridges.

Mr. Mahoe read for the first time a bill respecting the ownership in wild birds.

A Resolution offered by Mr. Brown, was adopted, requesting through the Minister of Finance, a statement from the Collector-General of Customs as to the quantities of wines and spirits imported into this Kingdom by Chinese, during the past two years.

Mr. Rice gave notice of intention to introduce a bill for the protection of imported animals; also to prohibit the importation and sale of intoxicating liquors.

Mr. Lahilahi read first time his bill to repeal the restrictions on the sale of spirits to native Hawaiians. Returned to the introducer to correct mistakes.

Mr. Pilipo offered a resolution to the effect that the Minister of Foreign Affairs be requested to inform the House full particulars as to any demands which have been made on this government by that of Great Britain, in connection with the Reciprocity Treaty with the United States of America; and to report the same in writing.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs said it had already been determined by the Government to lay before the House a statement of our relations with foreign powers, and the subject of the resolution was one of the matters included therein. It was a fact that the Foreign Office had not, in the past, explained as ought to have been done, the condition of our relations with other governments, and no little surprise had been caused by this reticence. It was only proper that full explanations should be given, and he assured the members, in the name of the Government that such would be given, as soon as they could be properly prepared.

Mr. Brown read for the first time his bill to amend the Sunday Observance Law.

A resolution offered by Mr. Nawahi and amended by Mr. Widemann, was adopted, calling on the Minister of the Interior for information as to how much the Government has received for the importation of laborers, through the Board of Immigration, and also the expenses incurred in importing the same.

Resolution by Mr. Richardson, adopted, calling on the Minister of Foreign Affairs for copies of subsisting treaties between this Government and those of England and France.

Resolution by Mr. Pilipo, inquiring of the Attorney General whether the passage of an Act prohibiting the importation of spirituous liquors would conflict with treaty stipulations.

Mr. Ahelo supported the Resolution. There were numerous petitions before the Assembly for the passage of a prohibitory law; the Chief Justice had publicly said there was no treaty obstacle in the way; but we hear on the other hand the assertion that we are forbidden by treaty obligations. Let us have the question finally settled. He amended that the reply of the Attorney-General be in writing, and be printed, whereupon the resolution was adopted.

Mr. Kamakele gave notice of intention to introduce a bill to repeal Chapter 57 of the Penal Code.

The bill to reduce the school tax to $1.75, was, on its second reading, laid on the table.

The bill to provide a pension of $1,200 for Mr. Kuikelani, was sent to a special Committee, of which the Attorney-General is Chairman. Adjourned.

AMERICAN flags in the city and on shipping were yesterday displayed at half-mast, in honor of Decoration Day.

The latest published official list of members of the Board of Health contains the name of the Hon. J. S. Walker. Mr. Walker most emphatically states to us that he has resigned from the Board.

WHILE all the rest of the group is beginning to complain of the dry weather, the denizens of Kapapala, in Kau, have been rejoicing over copious showers. It is reported that during one day last week, no less a quantity than two inches fell at Kapapala in five hours, by actual measurement. We fancy however that the rain-gauge will prove to have been one of very modern manufacture.

A very pleasant reunion of the veterans of the war for the Union, took place last evening at the Hawaiian Hotel. It was almost an impromptu affair, suggested by the BULLETIN's notice on Monday of Decoration Day, and it was an agreeable surprise to find that there were so many of the old comrades in Honolulu (numbering forty-one) and that they so promptly answered to the call to "fall in." Gen. Comly, U. S. Minister Resident, presided, and opened with a few appropriate remarks, introducing the Rev. J. A. Cruzan, who offered a very eloquent and touching prayer. The company then sat down to a sumptuous repast, after joining heartily in singing, "John Brown's body," &c. The affair was a most enjoyable one, and we regret that our limits forbid an extended notice. "The memories of the gallant dead," was drunk standing and in silence. Eloquent remarks were made by Mr. Cruzan, Gen. Hartwell, Dr. Hagan, and others. Among the songs were—"Just before the battle, mother," "Red, White and Blue," "Marching thro' Georgia," &c. The beautiful poem, "Cover them over with beautiful flowers," was read by Mr. Cruzan, and "The Blue and the Grey," by Mr. Murphy. It was intimated that the result of the first meeting of veterans will be a permanent organization.

THERE came near being a runaway yesterday morning, with probabilities in favor of serious results. A horse attached to a dray without a driver, on Fort street below Queen, became frightened at a bunch of ti leaves, and started off on a run. But before going far, a native standing by ran and bravely seized the reins, to which he clung while the animal dragged him some distance, until brought up. The man (we don't know his name) deserves commendation; but two policemen in immaculate white clothes, stood unconcernedly looking on.

On account of the non-arrival of the China bound steamer from San Francisco, we hear that the "Tourists" will announce another programme.

H. B. M. S. Champion, from Coquimbo, South America, and bound to Victoria, is at anchor outside this morning.
